If a "Dealer Information" was provided in the section 9, please do not provide a "Trusted Person" to Voya.

In 2018, FINRA, the primary regulator of Voya Investment Management (Voya), put in place regulations designed to protect retail customers from financial exploitation. These regulations, which are set forth in FINRA Rule 4512, require that FINRA members such as Voya make reasonable efforts to obtain the name of and contact information for a trusted contact person at the time a customer's account is opened. In instituting these regulations, FINRA has stated that the trusted contact person is intended to be a resource for the member firm in administering the customer's account, protecting assets and responding to possible financial exploitation. Voya may use its discretion in relying on any information provided by the trusted contact person. Voya may also elect to notify an individual that he or she was named as a trusted contact person; however, the Rule does not require such notification.

If you choose to provide Voya with the name and contact information of a trusted contact person, Voya or a Voya-associated person is authorized to contact the trusted contact person and disclose information about your account to address possible financial exploitation, to confirm the specifics of your current contact information, health status, or the identity of any legal guardian, executor, trustee or holder of a power of attorney, or as otherwise permitted by FINRA Rules. In such circumstances, if you have chosen to provide Voya with the name and contact information of a trusted contact person, Voya is authorized under FINRA Rule 2165, if it reasonably believes that financial exploitation has occurred, is occurring, has been attempted or will be attempted, to place a temporary hold on the disbursement of funds or securities from the account of a customer. Be advised that Rule 2165 creates no obligation for Voya to withhold a disbursement of funds or securities in such circumstances.

What is this form?

To help the government fight financial crime, Federal regulation requires certain financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information about the beneficial owners of legal entity customers. Legal entities can be abused to disguise involvement in terrorist financing, money laundering, tax evasion, corruption, fraud, and other financial crimes. Requiring the disclosure of key individuals who own or control a legal entity (i.e., the beneficial owners) helps law enforcement investigate and prosecute these crimes.

Who has to complete this form?

This form must be completed by any person opening a new account on behalf of a legal entity with any of the following U.S. financial institutions: (i) a bank or credit union; (ii) a broker or dealer in securities; (iii) a mutual fund; (iv) a futures commission merchant; and (v) an introducing broker in commodities.

For the purposes of this form, a legal entity includes a corporation, limited liability company, or other entity that is created by a filing of a public document with a Secretary of State or similar office, a general partnership, and any similar business entity formed in the United States or a foreign country. Legal entity does not include sole proprietorships, unincorporated associations, or natural persons opening accounts on their own behalf.

What information do I have to provide?

When you open a new account on behalf of a legal entity, we will ask for information about the legal entity's beneficial owner(s), including their name, address, date of birth and social security number (or passport number or other similar information, in the case of Non-U.S. persons). The financial institution may also ask to see a copy of a driver's license or other identifying document for each beneficial owner listed on this form. Beneficial owners are:

- (1) Each individual, if any, who owns, directly or indirectly, 25 percent or more of the equity interests of the legal entity customer (e.g., each natural person that owns 25 percent or more of the shares of a corporation; and
- (2) An individual with significant responsibility for managing the legal entity customer (e.g., a Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Managing Member, General Partner, President, Vice President, or Treasurer).

The number of individuals that satisfy this definition of "beneficial owner" may vary. Under section (1) below, depending on the factual circumstances, up to four individuals (but as few as zero) may need to be identified. Regardless of the number of individuals identified under section (1), you must provide the identifying information of one individual under section (2). It is possible that in some circumstances the same individual might be identified under both sections (e.g., the President of Acme, Inc. who also holds a 30% equity interest). Thus, a completed form will contain the identifying information of at least one individual (under section (2)), and up to five individuals (i.e., one individual under section (2) and four 25 percent equity holders under section (1))

The information contained in this Certification is sought pursuant to Section 1020.230 of Title 31 of the United States Code of Federal Regulations (31 CFR 1020.230).

All persons opening an account on behalf of a legal entity must provide the following information:

_____ Street Address _____ City _____ State _____ ZIP code
